

Harry's latest film - Glossary action noun

the events that form part of a play or film

The action takes place in an expensive restaurant.

audience noun

a group of people who are watching or listening to something such as a film, play or talk

The audience clapped at the end of the play.

attack noun

a fight against someone or something

A large part of the city was destroyed in the air attack.

(be) based on phrasal verb to use something as a model for a film, piece of writing, or work of art

The film is based on a true story.

broomstick noun

a sweeping brush with a long handle, made with sticks and twigs. Witches often ride through the air on broomsticks in children's stories.

dark adjective

mysterious and frightening excited adjective

happy and full of enthusiasm because you are looking forward to something

Everybody in the town was excited about the president's visit.

forces of evil noun phrase evil influences, for example the devil hero noun

the most important person in a book or film

The hero of the story was tall and strong.

include verb

to make something or somebody part of a whole thing

Have you included John in the football team?

presence noun

being there. You are present somewhere if you are in or at that place.

Only six people were present at the meeting.

reader noun

a person who reads a particular thing

The magazine prints some of the letters it receives from its readers.

relationship noun

how people get on with each other

The members of the soccer team have a good relationship.

romance noun

love and the pleasant feelings associated with it

My mother likes to read stories about romance.

series noun

a number of things coming one after the other

Did you see the series of TV programmes about animals?

take place phrasal verb

to happen

The Olympics take place every four years.