

The Winter Olympics– Glossary

alter verb [transitive]

to make something or someone different clothing noun [uncountable] clothes of a particular type outdoor/protective/waterproof clothing competitor noun [countable]

someone who takes part in a sports competition

Over 30,000 competitors will run in the New York marathon.

crash helmet noun [countable]

a hard round hat that you wear to protect your head while driving a motorcycle or racing car fire verb [intransitive/transitive]

if a weapon fires, or if someone fires it, someone uses it to shoot goal noun [countable]

the net or structure that you try to get the ball into in games such as football and basketball goalkeeper noun [countable] the player whose job is to stop the ball going into the goal in games such as football ice rink noun [countable]

a large flat area of ice inside a building, where people can go to ice-skate individual adjective

existing or considered separately from other people or things

kick verb

to hit someone or something with your foot objective noun [countable]

something that you plan to achieve, especially in business or work

one at a time phrase

used for saying how many people or things there are in each group or on each occasion

Deal with each question separately, one at a time.

opponent noun [countable]

someone who is competing against you

You're facing a much more experienced opponent in tomorrow's match.

protective adjective

providing protection against something harmful or dangerous protective clothing/goggles release noun [countable/uncountable] the act of moving a piece of equipment from the position that it is held in rifle noun [countable]

a large gun with a long barrel that you hold against your shoulder to fire skate noun [countable]

a type of shoe with a thin metal blade on the bottom, used for moving quickly on ice slope noun [countable]

a surface for people to ski on a new indoor ski slope

stick noun

a long thin piece of wood used for hitting or carrying something in a sport

a hockey stick

sweep verb [intransitive/ transitive]

to clean a floor, the ground, or another surface using a broom brush with a long handle target noun [countable]

an object that you have to hit in a game or a sport

Few players managed to get their shots on target.

team noun [countable]

a group of people who play a sport or a game against another group can be followed by a singular or plural verb

a football/hockey/basketball team throw verb [intransitive/transitive]

to use your hand to send an object through the air track noun [countable]

a piece of ground used for racing