e-lesson

Week starting: August 17, 2009

1. Beyoncé

This week's lesson is about the American R&B singer who is already one of the most successful female performers in the history of pop music: Beyoncé Knowles.

Level

Intermediate and above (equivalent to CEF level B1 and above).

How to use the lesson

1. Start by asking your students what their favorite kinds of music are, and why. Ask them who they think are the best female performers in pop music today, and why. Then brainstorm on the subject of Beyoncé, gathering as much information as possible.

2. Give your students five to ten minutes to read through Worksheet A, encouraging them to look up new vocabulary. Tell them they are going to answer questions on the text, but that they shouldn't write anything down at this stage.

3. Divide the students into pairs, hand out Worksheet B, and ask them to work together to complete the crossword.

4. Check answers in open class.

Answers: 1. married 2. female 3. hit 4. world 5. tune 6. earns 7. style
8. sang 9. album 10. voice 11. history

If the sentences have been completed correctly, If I Were A Boy will read from top to bottom.

5. Ask the students to put away Worksheet A or to temporarily hand it back to you. Keeping the students in their pairs, ask them to attempt Exercise 2 on Worksheet C, which contains the text from Worksheet A with twenty incorrect words that they have to identify and correct. The words containing the mistakes are all in bold, as are five other words that are correct. Point out that the mistakes are all grammatical or lexical, and that no correction requires them to write more than one additional word.
