

Surfing – Glossary

ankle noun [countable]

the part at the bottom of your leg where your foot joins your leg artificial adjective

made by people and used instead of something natural attach verb [transitive]

to fasten or join one thing to another balance verb [intransitive/transitive] to keep your body steady without falling over beginner noun [countable]

someone who has just started to learn or do something helpful tips for the complete beginner competition noun [countable]

an organized event in which people try to win prizes by being better than other people They should have a good chance of winning the competition.

cord noun [countable/uncountable]

strong thick string
a length of cord

essential adjective

completely necessary

explorer noun [countable]

someone who travels to a place that other people do not know much about in order to find out what is there hooked adjective

if you are hooked on something, you find it so attractive or interesting that you want to do it as much as possible lie down phrasal verb [intransitive] to put yourself in a position in which your body is flat on a surface living noun [singular]

money that you earn to live on

Do you know what she does for a living?

material noun [uncountable]

a substance, especially one used for a particular purpose pleasure noun [uncountable]

a feeling of happiness, enjoyment, or satisfaction

professional adjective

playing a sport or doing an activity as a job rather than for enjoyment

a professional actor/footballer/photographer stand up phrasal verb [intransitive] to put your body into an upright position from a sitting or lying position stick verb [intransitive] to become fixed to something, especially by means of a sticky substance surf verb [intransitive]

to ride on waves in the sea on a surf board surfboard noun [countable]

a long narrow board that you stand or lie on to ride waves wave noun [countable]

a line of water that rises up on the surface of a sea, lake, or river

The boat was smashed by a huge wave.

wax noun [uncountable]

a soft natural or artificial substance that becomes liquid when heated, used for making candles and models, for making wooden furniture shine, and for protecting objects from water

a ball of wax

wetsuit noun [countable]

a suit made of rubber that people wear for water sports such as diving and surfing