

Jeans – Glossary

associate verb [transitive] to form a connection in your mind between different people or things average adjective

like most others of the same type
The average child spends around ten hours a week watching television.

casual adjective
casual clothes are comfortable, and suitable for wearing in informal situations

cotton noun [uncountable] cloth made from the white fibres of a plant called a cotton plant cowboy noun [countable]

a man whose job is to look after cows on a ranch in the US dye noun [countable/uncountable] a substance used for changing the colour of something such as clothing or your hair estimate noun [countable] an amount that you guess or calculate using the information available have something on phrasal verb [transitive, never progressive] to be wearing particular clothes, shoes etc Melissa had her new dress on.

hole noun [countable]
a space in the surface of something that goes partly or completely through it All my socks have holes in them.

leisure noun [uncountable]
activities that you do to relax or enjoy yourself My busy schedule leaves little time for leisure.

naval adjective [only before noun] relating to or belonging to a country's navy (the part of a country's armed forces that can fight at sea)

pair noun [countable]
a single unit made up of two similar parts joined together My glasses are getting old and I probably need a new pair.

prisoner noun [countable]
someone who is in prison as punishment for a crime Security staff will escort the prisoners to the scene of the crime.

rebellious adjective
opposing authority or accepted ways of doing things sailor noun [countable]

someone who works on a boat or ship

sand noun [uncountable]
a loose pale brown substance that you find at a beach or in the desert, formed from very small pieces of rock
The children were playing in the sand.

uniform noun [countable/uncountable] a set of clothes that you wear to show that you are part of a particular organisation or school
He was still wearing his school uniform.

West, the noun [uncountable] the part of the world that includes Europe and North America
The West's response was likely to be decided on Saturday.