

Thanksgiving – Glossary

accompaniment noun [countable] something that you provide as a good addition, especially to a particular meal anniversary noun [countable] a date when you celebrate something that happened in a previous year that is important to you celebration noun [countable] a party or special event at which you celebrate something such as a birthday or a religious holiday ceremony noun [countable]

a formal public event with special traditions, actions, or words

Congress proper noun
the group of people in the USA who are elected to make laws. It consists of the House of Representatives and the Senate.

corn noun [uncountable]
a tall plant with large yellow seeds on a cob (thick piece of stem) cranberry noun [countable]

a small sour red fruit that grows on a bush

day off noun [countable]
a day when you are not at school or work, for example because you are not well or because it is not a normal working day We're planning a trip to the zoo on my day off.

dessert noun [countable/uncountable] sweet food that you eat after the main part of a meal feast noun [countable]

a large meal for a lot of people, usually in order to celebrate something hunger noun [uncountable] a lack of food that can cause illness or death, especially among large numbers of people look forward to phrasal verb [transitive] to feel happy and excited about something that is going to happen

He had worked hard and was looking forward to his retirement.

mashed potatoes noun [plural] potatoes that have been boiled and are then crushed with milk and butter until they are smooth

Native American noun [countable]
(or American Indian) someone who belongs to one of the tribes (groups of people) who lived in North and South America before Europeans arrived

pardon verb [transitive] to officially forgive someone for committing a crime and free them from prison peculiar adjective

strange, often in an unpleasant way pie noun [countable/uncountable] a food that consists of meat, vegetables, or fruit cooked inside a case of pastry or below a layer of it pumpkin noun [countable/uncountable] a large round vegetable with a thick orange skin and large seeds roast adjective [only before noun] cooked in an oven or over a fire sauce noun [countable/uncountable] a liquid food that you put on other foods to give them a particular flavor settler noun [countable] someone who goes to live in a place where not many people live, and starts to make it into a community survival noun [uncountable] the fact or state of continuing to live or exist, especially in difficult conditions surviving adjective

still alive or remaining after others are dead or destroyed take off phrasal verb [transitive] to have a particular amount of time away from work I'm taking Monday off to go to the game.

turkey noun [countable]
a large bird similar to a chicken that has no feathers on its head and is often eaten at Christmas and Thanksgiving