

Halloween – Glossary

ancestor noun [countable]
someone who is related to you who lived long ago

at the same time phrase used for introducing another fact or opinion that needs to be considered as well as the one that has just been stated

bat noun [countable]
a small animal that flies at night and looks like a mouse with large wings beg verb [intransitive/transitive] to ask people for money or food, usually because you are very poor candy noun [uncountable]

sweet food made of cooked sugar or chocolate but not containing flour

Celt noun [countable]
a member of an ancient group of people who lived in parts of western Europe costume noun [countable/uncountable] clothes that performers wear in a play, movie, etc.

door to door phrase
going to all the houses in an area, for example trying to sell things or asking for information or votes

dress noun [uncountable]
the clothes that are typical of a particular place, time in history, or occasion They performed the play in Victorian dress.

evil adjective
an evil person does very bad or cruel things

free verb [transitive]
to help someone to get out of a place

frightening adjective making you feel afraid

go back phrasal verb [intransitive/transitive] to have existed since or for a particular time

harvest noun [countable]
the activity of collecting a crop

insect noun [countable]
a small animal that has six legs and often has wings. There are many different types of insects, such as bees, flies, and beetles.

lantern noun [countable]
a light inside a transparent container with a handle for carrying it

magic noun [uncountable]
the mysterious power that some people believe can make impossible things happen if you do special actions or say special words called spells

monster noun [countable]
an imaginary creature that is large and frightening offering noun [countable] something that people give as a present to honor someone or something or else phrase

used for stating the second of two possibilities

pray verb [intransitive/transitive] to speak to God or a saint, for example to give thanks or ask for help pumpkin noun [countable/uncountable] a large round vegetable with a thick orange skin and large seeds scare away/off phrasal verb [transitive] to make someone feel so frightened or worried that they do not do something that they had planned to do

seasonal adjective used about fruit and vegetables that are available now, at this time of year

trick noun [countable]
something that you do in order to annoy someone or to make people laugh at them, often by making them believe something that is not true

witch noun [countable]
a woman in stories who has magic powers. A man with magic powers is usually called a wizard.