

Events of 2012

WORKSHEET A

Exercise 1

Decide if the following statements are true or false, then bet a minimum of 10 points up to a maximum of 50 on your choice.

		True/ False	Points bet	Points lost	Points won
1	Barack Obama of the Democratic Party easily won the US presidential election in November. He received 64% of the votes, while Mitt Romney of the Republican Party got only 35%.
2	In London in July and August, women's boxing became part of the Olympic Games® for the first time.
3	The US team won the most medals at the London Olympics. China was in second place, and Great Britain was in third.
4	The latest James Bond movie, Skyfall , was the seventh James Bond movie ever made.
5	In the US presidential election, more than 90% of people who were able to vote did so.
6	In Skyfall , the role of James Bond was played by the British actor Daniel Craig.
7	The video for "Gangnam Style," by South Korean rapper Psy, became the most watched clip ever on YouTube.
8	By the end of 2012, more than 1.4 billion people – about 20% of the world's population – owned an iPhone®.
9	In June, Queen Elizabeth II of the United Kingdom celebrated her Diamond Jubilee, which means she has been on the throne for 40 years.
10	In October, Felix Baumgartner of Austria set the record for the highest-ever skydive when he jumped out of a balloon 39 kilometers above the Earth. He fell for more than four minutes before opening his parachute and landing safely.
				Total points lost and won
				Final total (subtract total points lost from total points won)

Events of 2012

WORKSHEET B

Exercise 2

The text below is factually correct, but there is one mistake in each line. How many of the mistakes can you find and correct?

- (1) The most important politic event of 2012 was probably the United States
- (2) president election in November – although only 58% of people who were able
- (3) to vote did so. Barack Obama of the Democratic Party was re-elect as president,
- (4) but it was close: he recieved 51% of the votes, while Mitt Romney of the
- (5) Republican Party gets 48%.

- (6) The two biggest events the UK were the Diamond Jubilee celebrations, to mark
- (7) the fact that Queen Elizabeth II has been on the thone for 60 years, and the
- (8) Olympic Games[®] in London. The Great Britain team did very good in the
- (9) Olympics, winning the three highest number of medals behind the United States
- (10) and China. Women’s boxe was included in the Games for the first time.

- (11) One of most popular movies in theaters around the world was the latest James
- (12) Bond aventure, Skyfall, with British actor Daniel Craig in the main role. It was
- (13) the twenty-third Bond movie; the first was Dr. No on 1962.

- (14) Apple[®] brought out the iPhone 5, and of course many people bought it as quick
- (15) as they could. It is estimate that about 250 million people – 3.5% of the world’s
- (16) populations – now own an iPhone[®].

- (17) A South Korean rap called Psy became famous worldwide, thanks to the
- (18) video for his song “Gangnam Style.” By end of the year it was the most watched
- (19) clip ever at YouTube.

- (20) An Austria man named Felix Baumgartner skydived from a balloon
- (21) 39 kilometers above the Erth. He fell for more than four minutes, reaching a speed
- (22) of more than 1,000 kilometers per hour, before opening his parashoot and
- (23) grounding safely in New Mexico in the south-west of the United States.

Events of 2012

WORKSHEET C

The most important political event of 2012 was probably the United States presidential election in November – although only 58% of people who were able to vote did so. Barack Obama of the Democratic Party was re-elected as president, but it was close: he received 51% of the votes, while Mitt Romney of the Republican Party got 48%.

The two biggest events in the UK were the Diamond Jubilee celebrations, to mark the fact that Queen Elizabeth II has been on the throne for 60 years, and the Olympic Games[®] in London. The Great Britain team did very well in the Olympics, winning the third highest number of medals behind the United States and China. Women's boxing was included in the Games for the first time.

One of the most popular movies in theaters around the world was the latest James Bond adventure, Skyfall, with British actor Daniel Craig in the main role. It was the twenty-third Bond movie; the first was Dr. No in 1962.

Apple[®] brought out the iPhone 5, and of course many people bought it as quickly as they could. It is estimated that about 250 million people – 3.5% of the world's population – now own an iPhone[®].

A South Korean rapper called Psy became famous worldwide, thanks to the video for his song “Gangnam Style.” By the end of the year it was the most watched clip ever on YouTube.

An Austrian man named Felix Baumgartner skydived from a balloon 39 kilometers above the Earth. He fell for more than four minutes, reaching a speed of more than 1,000 kilometers per hour, before opening his parachute and landing safely in New Mexico in the south-west of the United States.