

Events of 2012 – Glossary

boxing noun [uncountable]

a sport in which two boxers fight by hitting each other while wearing large leather boxing gloves on their hands. They fight in a square area with ropes around it, called a boxing ring.

bring out phrasal verb [transitive]

to produce a new product and start to sell it
She is bringing out an eagerly awaited solo album next month.

clip noun [countable]

a short part of a movie, television program, or news story that is shown separately They showed a clip of Robin Williams being interviewed.

election noun [countable]

an occasion when people vote for someone to represent them, especially in government Only about 20% of the people voted in the local elections.

jubilee noun [countable]

a big celebration for a special occasion, especially an anniversary a parade for the nation's silver jubilee land verb [intransitive]

to come down to the ground or to a surface after moving or falling through the air
The hawk landed on a fence post near the road.

medal noun [countable]

a small flat piece of metal that you are given for winning a competition or doing something very brave
She won a silver medal in swimming.

parachute noun [countable]

a large piece of cloth joined to heavy strings, used by someone jumping out of an airplane presidential adjective [only before noun] relating to a president

a presidential election/campaign/candidate rapper noun [countable]

someone who performs rap music

role noun [countable]

the character played by a particular actor in a movie, play, etc.

The leading role should have gone to a more well-known star.

skydive noun [countable]

jumping out of an airplane and falling for as long as possible before opening your parachute. Someone who does this is a skydiver.

throne noun [countable]

the position of being a king or queen an heir to the throne

worldwide adjective, adverb happening or existing all over the world

Our company has 1,500 employees worldwide.