

The Glastonbury Festival - Glossary

attract verb [transitive] to make someone interested in something so that they do it or come to see or hear it

The show attracts viewers from all walks of life.

activity noun [count]

something that you do because you enjoy it or because it is interesting Guests can enjoy plenty of activities, like swimming, surfing, and horse-riding, leisure activities

circus [noun]

a group of people, and usually animals, that travels from place to place and entertains people by performing skilful or funny movements and tricks
The kids want us to take them to the circus again.

comedy [noun]

a type of entertainment intended to make people laugh

countryside noun [uncount]

the area outside towns and cities, with farms, fields, and trees
There is growing concern over the future of the countryside.

farm noun [count]

an area of land used for growing crops or keeping animals
on a farm: Patrick worked on a neighbouring farm.

fashionable adj

popular at a particular time Gardening has become very fashionable.
fashionable clothes

festival noun [count]

a series of performances of films, plays, music, or dancing that is usually organized in the same place at the same time each year
a film/music/dance/theatre festival

muddy adj

covered with mud, or full of mud (very soft wet earth)
muddy boots

organiser noun [count]

someone who makes all the arrangements for an event or activity, especially as a job
a conference/party organizer

outdoor adjective [only before noun]

done outside
outdoor activities such as walking and camping

popular adj

a popular activity, place, thing etc is one that many people like What is the most popular leisure pastime after watching television?

security noun [uncount]

the department within an organization that protects buildings and workers sell out verb [intransitive]

when all the tickets for a performance, sports event etc. are sold
The tickets had sold out within a few short hours.

theatre noun [count]

a building, room, or outside area used for performing plays
We're going to the theatre tonight.

wellie noun [count]

a rubber or plastic boot that does not let water in